Da'Nall Wilmer is an award-winning educator, mentor, and author from Baltimore, Maryland. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in Mass Media Arts from Clark Atlanta University and his Master of Arts in Teaching from Towson University.

Driven by a passion to make a positive difference in the lives of young people, Da'Nall founded Boys in the Good, a successful youth leadership program that inspired his first children's book, The Good Book: A Kid's Guide to Becoming a Successful Student Leader.

He went on to author The Great Book: A Kid's Guide to Understanding the Greatness in Extroverts and Introverts, which reflects his own journey as an introvert and celebrates the unique strengths of every child. His third title, The Best Book: A Kid's Guide to Overcoming Everyday Challenges and Living Your Best Life, draws on the wisdom of his late father and encourages children to embrace self-love.

His most recent release, The Unbreakable Book: A Kid's Guide to Resilience and Hope for a Better Tomorrow, offers inspiration to children navigating adversity and injustice, reminding them of their strength and potential to create a brighter future.

Da'Nall's impact has been recognized through numerous honors, including the Clark Atlanta University 40 Under 40 Alumni Achievement Award and Teacher of the Year. He is a proud member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., the NAACP, and currently teaches at Woodward Academy in Atlanta, Georgia.
